Personnel And Development Committee Terms Of Reference

The Personnel and Development Committee Terms of Reference were adopted by Council at its Council Meeting held on 17 May 2023.

1 Committee

- 1.1 The Personnel and Development Committee is constituted as a Committee of Kennington Community Council in accordance with section 4 of the Council's Standing Orders.
- 1.2 The Committee will work closely with the Clerk to the Council to provide assurance that the Council's management of employees meets statutory requirements, and that training of staff and councillors is relevant to current and future needs of the individuals as Councillors and the Council as an organisation.

2 Precedence

- 2.1 Where there is any actual or perceived difference in interpretation between these Terms of Reference and the Council's Standing Orders or Financial Regulations, the Council's Standing Orders or Financial Regulations shall apply.

3 Members

- 3.1 Four Councillors shall be appointed annually at the Annual Council Meeting as voting members. In addition, the Chair of the Council, unless he or she is one of the four appointed voting members, shall be an ex-officio member entitled to attend meetings, to speak, to propose or second a motion but not to vote.
- 3.2 Substitute members are permitted, provided two days' notice has been given to the Proper Officer.

- 3.3 Council may appoint up to two non-Councillors to be non-voting members of this Committee if they have relevant skills and experience which would be of benefit to its work; the Committee may recommend nominees to Council.
- 3.4 The Clerk to the Council shall attend all meetings of the Committee, to provide advice and guidance and to record outcomes of the meeting.
- 3.5 The quorum of the Committee shall be three voting Members.
- 3.6 In the event of a vacancy arising on this committee, a replacement Councillor may be appointed during the year by the Community Council at a full Council meeting and serve until the Annual Meeting of the Council.

4 Chair

- 4.1 The Chair is to be elected annually by the Committee at their first Meeting. In the event of the Chair resigning from that position, from the Committee or from the Council, a new Chair is to be elected at the next Committee meeting, to serve for the remainder of the year.
- 4.2 The Vice Chair (if there is one) is to be elected annually by the Committee at their first Meeting. In the event of the Vice Chair resigning from that position, from the Committee or from the Council, a new Vice Chair is to be elected at the next Committee meeting, to serve for the remainder of the year.
- 4.3 The Chair of the Committee, if present, shall preside at a meeting. If the Chair is absent from a meeting, the Vice Chair of the Committee (if there is one) if present shall preside.

5 Voting

- 5.1 Only Councillors referred to in paragraph 3 may vote at a meeting. In the case of an equal vote the Chair of the Committee shall have a second or casting vote. Non-voting members may participate in discussions but may not vote.

6 Interests

- 6.1 A councillor with voting rights who has a disclosable pecuniary interest or another interest as set out in the Council's code of conduct in a matter being considered at a meeting is subject to statutory limitations or restrictions under the code on his/her right to participate and vote on that matter.
- 6.2 Non-voting members should declare any relevant interest and withdraw during any discussion in which they have a conflict of interest.

7 Meetings

- 7.1 The Committee will meet as the workload requires, but in any case, at least twice each year.
- 7.2 Of these:
 - (i) One meeting to be held each year to review Terms of Reference; Staff Appraisal, training and development; all policies that relate to staff employment, staff contracts, job descriptions and training.
 - (ii) One meeting to be held each year to review all policies that relate to Councillor development and training, review progress against plan for Councillor development.

7.3 Additional meetings to be convened when necessary to deal with any other matter, including performance and capability, grievance and employee code of conduct matters; recruitment to staff vacancies, or any other emerging staffing or councillor development matters.

8 Terms Of Reference

8.1 To review the Terms of Reference of the Committee at least once during the year and make recommendations to Council for its approval at the Annual Council Meeting of Council or when necessary.

9 Minutes

9.1 All Minutes shall be open for inspection by any Councillors, except where this would breach the rights of individuals who may be identified in the minutes.

10 Responsibilities
